Day 3 :- Hobart - Port Arthur & Tasmania Devils

Proceed to Port Arthur day tour with return SIC transfer. Begin early from Hobart to the stunning Tasman Peninsula, known for dramatic sea cliffs, rich history, and scenic views from Pirates Bay Lookout. Walk the Waterfall Bay Clifftop Track to see Tasman Arch and Devil's Kitchen. Visit the Tasmanian Devil Unzoo to witness a devil feeding and interact with native wildlife. Explore the Port Arthur Historic Site with a harbour cruise, discover the penitentiary, solitary cells, and haunting convict history. On the return journey, stop in Richmond to stroll the charming streets and see Australia's oldest convict-built bridge.

*Departure on every Monday & Wednesday

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Hobart - Launceston Via Wineglass Bay & Freycinet National Park

Check-out and depart Hobart and journey up Tasmania's scenic east coast through Orford and Swansea to Freycinet National Park, known for its pink granite mountains, white sandy beaches, and pristine bays. Hike to the famous Wineglass Bay Lookout. Alternatively, explore sites like Honeymoon Bay, Sleepy Bay, and Cape Tourville with your guide. On the return, stop at Devil's Corner Winery to enjoy the views, optional wine tasting, wood-fired pizza, seafood, and ice cream before continuing to Launceston, arriving in Launceston around 6pm.

*Departure on every Tuesday & Thursday

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Launceston - Cradile Mountain National Park

After breakfast, proceed to Cradle Mountain National Park with return SIC transfer. Explore the stunning Cradle Mountain National Park with around 5 hours to enjoy various walking trails, tailored to weather and group preferences. Departing Launceston, stop in the charming mural town of Sheffield before heading into the World Heritage-listed wilderness. Begin with the scenic Enchanted Walk, then choose between the easy Dove Lake Circuit or the more challenging hike to Marion's Lookout for panoramic views. Along the way, spot local wildlife like wombats, and visit Weindorfer's Chalet and ancient King Billy Pines. Enjoy a sweet treat at Van Dieman's Land Ice Creamery and Christmas Hills Raspberry Farm before return.

Breakfast

Day 6 :- Launceston - Departure

After breakfast, make your own arrangement to Launceston Airport for your flight departure
