Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrive in Quito

Upon arrival at Mariscal Sucre International Airport, you will be met and transferred to your hotel in Quito with English-speaking assistance.

Overnight in Quito.

Day 2 :- Quito | Colonial City Walking Tour

After breakfast, enjoy a guided walking tour of historic Quito, one of South America's best-preserved colonial centres and a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site since 1978. Stroll through narrow cobblestone streets lined with whitewashed buildings and magnificent churches.

Highlights include Main Plaza (Independence Square), Government Palace, La Compañía de Jesús Church, San Francisco Monastery, and La Ronda.

Overnight in Quito.

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Quito - Quilotoa Lake - Baños

Depart southbound through Cotopaxi National Park, enjoying panoramic views of Cotopaxi Volcano and, weather permitting, Antisana Volcano.

Continue to the spectacular Quilotoa Lake, an emerald-green volcanic crater lake, and enjoy a walk along the crater rim (approx. 1.7 km).

On the way, visit the indigenous community of Tigua to explore local art galleries and meet renowned Andean painter Julio Toaquiza. Continue to Baños.

Overnight in Baños.

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Baños - Avenue of the Waterfalls

Explore the famous Avenue of the Waterfalls. Stops include Agoyán Waterfall, Manto de la Novia (Bride's Veil) Waterfall optional cable car ride, and Pailón del Diablo (Devil's Cauldron), one of Ecuador's most powerful waterfalls.

Return to Baños. Overnight in Baños.

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Baños – Riobamba - Chimborazo Land of Llamas

Travel toward Riobamba for a cultural experience near Chimborazo Volcano.

Visit the local community of Palacio Real to learn about llamas, alpacas, guanacos, and vicuñas, and their role in Andean life. Explore the Llama Museum, handicraft shop, and scenic llama trail across the highland páramo.

Overnight in Riobamba.

Breakfast Lunch

Day 6 :- Riobamba – Alausí – Ingapirca – Cuenca

Visit the charming Andean town of Alausí, perched dramatically along a steep hillside. Continue to Ingapirca Ruins, Ecuador's most significant Inca archaeological complex, known for its finely carved stone architecture and ceremonial importance.

Proceed to Cuenca, one of Ecuador's most beautiful colonial cities. The remainder of the day is at leisure to explore its waterfront and historic plazas.

Overnight in Cuenca.

Breakfast

Day 7 :- Cuenca - Guayaquil

Depart for Guayaquil, stopping at El Cajas National Park, known for its dramatic high-altitude lakes and rugged landscapes. Visit a local cacao community to learn about the chocolate-making process from bean to bar, followed by tasting.

Continue to Guayaquil.
Overnight in Guayaquil.

Breakfast

Day 8 :- Guayaquil – Santa Cruz Island
