Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrive Auckland - Coromandel Town

Upon arrival in Auckland, collect your campervan and begin your self-drive journey. Head towards Coromandel Town, a charming coastal destination known for its golden beaches, art galleries, and historic mining sites. A recommended stop is the Driving Creek Railway,

Optional Activity: Driving Creek Railway

Day 2 :- Coromandel Peninsula - Hahei - Hot Water Beach

Journey to the beautiful Coromandel coastline with a stop at Cathedral Cove, a stunning beach accessible by a walking track featuring a natural rock arch and crystal-clear waters. Continue to Hot Water Beach where, during low tide, you can dig your own hot pool thanks to geothermal activity.

Optional Activity: Cathedral Cove Kayaking Tour, Spade hire for digging (available at nearby shops or campsites)

Day 3 :- Hot Water Beach - Matamata - Rotorua

Depart the coast early and drive through the scenic Kaimai Ranges to Matamata to join a guided tour of the Hobbiton Movie Set, exploring the 12-acre site featuring Hobbit Holes, the Party Tree, and a complimentary drink at the Green Dragon Inn. After tour, continue to Rotorua. In the evening, experience Māori traditions at Te Puia's Te Pahi Pahi Combo, which includes a guided tour of the geothermal valley and arts school, a cultural performance, and a delicious hāngi buffet dinner.

Day 4 :- Rotorua - Taupo

Start your morning at Wai-O-Tapu Thermal Wonderland, famous for its vibrant geothermal features including the Champagne Pool and Lady Knox Geyser. Afterward, walk the park's trails to see the vibrant Champagne Pool and bubbling mud craters. In the afternoon, drive south to Taupo. Visit the powerful Huka Falls, where the Waikato River thunders through a narrow rock canyon, and enjoy a relaxing walk along the shores of Lake Taupo, New Zealand's largest lake.

Optional Activity: Redwoods Treewalk, Huka Falls Jet Boat

Day 5 :- Taupo - Napier

Drive the scenic State Highway 5 to the Art Deco capital of Napier; spend your afternoon admiring the city's unique 1930s architecture on a self-guided walk or an optional vintage car tour. In the late afternoon, enjoy a wine tasting at one of the famous Hawke's Bay wineries, such as Mission Estate, New Zealand's oldest winery.

Optional Activity: Art Deco Vintage Car Tour, National Aquarium of New Zealand

Day 6 :- Napier - Mount Maunganui (Tauranga)

Depart Napier in the morning for a scenic drive north through the rolling hills and diverse landscapes of the Hawke's Bay and Bay of Plenty region. This journey offers a wonderful transition from the vineyard-heavy valleys to the sparkling Pacific coastline. Upon arrival in Mount Maunganui, hike to the summit of the "Mount" (Mauao) for spectacular 360-degree coastal views at sunset. This vibrant surf town offers excellent boutiques and beachfront cafes, making it a perfect spot for your final night of the trip.

Optional Activity: Mount Maunganui Summit Hike (Mauao), Mount Hot Pools, Dolphin Seafari

Day 7 :- Mount Maunganui (Tauranga) - Auckland Departure

Start early for the drive back to Auckland, ensure you have enough time to refuel the van and complete the drop-off process at the rental depot near the airport. If time permit (or late flight), consider a quick stop at the Auckland War Memorial Museum or a stroll through the Viaduct Harbour before heading to the terminal.
