After we proceed to Metro tour. The Moscow Metro has 271 stations and traces its history back to 1935. Each station is a separate world created by engineers, architects, sculptors, and artists. Let's slow down on this tour and take a look at the oldest and most beautiful metro stations. Visit Arbat Street It is one of the oldest streets in Moscow. Its name comes from the word "Arbad" or "rabad" which means "suburb". In the years 1974 – 1986 Arbat became Pedestrian Street with many shops, cafes, shopping areas, restaurants, street vendors and so on. Today Arbat Street retains its own unique Moscow look of past centuries. Overnight in Moscow.
