Sydney, Australia :- Sydney, Australia

Make the most of your time in one of the liveliest, must-see cities of the Pacific Rim. From bustling Circular Quay along the glamorous waterfront, take in the graceful sails of Sydney's iconic Opera House. Catch a glimpse of the past along the narrow, twisting laneways of the historic Rocks district in the shadow of the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Head west to the spectacular, untamed beauty of the Blue Mountains for a ride on the world's steepest perpendicular railway. Get up close with Australia's charming wildlife at the Koala Park Sanctuary, then end your day with a refreshing stop at a traditional Aussie pub.

Cruising the Tasman Sea :- Cruising the Tasman Sea

Whether looking for something special to wear for dinner or a memento for friends and family back home, you're bound to be tempted by the designer garments and fashionable accessories in our shops. Relax as you browse a wide range of items – upscale handbags to exclusive fragrances to fine jewelry and more – in an intimate and unhurried setting.

Mooloolaba, Australia :- Mooloolaba, Australia

Explore Mooloolaba's glamorous beachfront esplanade full of outdoor cafes, juice bars, alfresco restaurants, and fashion boutiques. Enjoy attractions like the exciting UnderWater World and the marina, as well as some of the Sunshine Coast's best dining. Mooloolaba was nominated as one of TripAdvisor's Top Ten Australian Beaches, boasting endless activities for swimmers and surfers. Likewise, snorkelers and jetskiers will delight in the beautiful waters, while those who prefer even more adventurous pursuits can dive with sharks and mingle with undersea creatures.

Cruising the Coral Sea :- Cruising the Coral Sea

Attention to detail. You'll notice it at the front of Chartreuse, where a beautifully crafted bar beckons while you wait. It's in the art deco tile pattern on the floor and sparkling gold tile on the walls. It's in the décor of a chic Parisian restaurant discovered during a stroll along the Seine. Savor 'new' flavors to Chartreuse like a tender veal rack of loin with caramelized endive, grape chutney and the earthy tones of a walnut veal jus sauce.

Gladstone, Australia :- Gladstone, Australia

Situated on Queensland's Capricorn Coast, Gladstone is a brilliant port city surrounded by natural beauty and diverse marine life. It is known as the location of the stunning Southern Great Barrier Reef. Experience Heron Island or Lady Musgrave Island, offering idyllic snorkeling and diving experiences amidst colorful coral gardens. Stroll through the serene Tondoon Botanic Gardens showcasing native flora, or enjoy panoramic harbor views from Auckland Hill Lookout.

Airlie Beach, Australia :- Airlie Beach, Australia

Soak up the laid-back, tropical atmosphere of the coastal village of Airlie Beach. This vibrant town is filled with palm-fringed beaches, waterfront parks and alfresco dining restaurants. Walk down Shute Harbour Road, the main street and back bone of Airlie Beach that is lined with outdoor restaurants, cafes and bars. Airlie Beach is also the gateway to the Whitsundays, the 74 pristine islands in the north of Queensland's Great Barrier Reef where you can visit luxurious resorts and sip cocktails by the pool, bask in the sun or relax in a spa.

Townsville, Australia :- Townsville, Australia

This lush metropolis among the tropical treasures of northern Queensland may be a gateway to the Great Barrier Reef, but it has unmissable attractions within reach. Take a short ferry ride to the coral-fringed beaches and walking trails of Magnetic Island. Wander among the cafes, galleries and boutiques of Townsville's sprawling seaside esplanade. Visit the much-lauded Reef HQ Great Barrier Reef Aquarium, a marine wonderland. Take a scenic ride to Billabong Sanctuary for up-close encounters with cassowaries, kookaburras, dingoes and other Aussie wildlife. Trek to the top of Castle Hill – a giant, pink-granite monolith that is Townsville's centerpiece – for the city's finest panoramic views.

Cruising the Coral Sea :- Cruising the Coral Sea

Based on the travels of Executive Chef Kelly in Morocco and Turkey, this cruise ship cooking class explores the trending culinary traditions and recipes of two ancient and revered cuisines. Learn the basics of tagine cookery and gain an appreciation for how the foods of these two great countries have influenced modern world gastronomy. Learn how to make nut milks and preserved lemons – prized in the Arabesque region and around the world. These cuisines are a favorite amongst our chefs, and the recipes are beyond delicious.

Cairns, Australia :- Cairns, Australia

This laid-back city in Far North Queensland is the gateway to a pair of World Heritage-listed treasures: the world-renowned Great Barrier Reef and spectacular Wet Tropics Rainforest. Sail by luxury catamaran to a pontoon moored atop the Outer Reef for a once-in-a-lifetime marine experience. Glide over miles of verdant jungle aboard the Skyrail Rainforest Cableway, stopping to explore on foot the world's oldest continually surviving tropical rainforest. In Cairns (pronounced 'cans'), walk the city's Esplanade overlooking the Coral Sea, pausing to dip your toes in an artificial saltwater lagoon. Encounter natural splendor at the city's Botanic Garden and Cairns Aquarium or hit some lively shops and cafes.

Cooktown, Australia :- Cooktown, Australia

Often described as the crossroads of the ship, our Atrium is an inspiring testament to the grandeur of luxury ocean travel. Cascading stairwells make it a natural gathering place for guests, but convenience alone doesn't begin to describe its magnetic appeal. On Seven Seas Explorer® a spectacular chandelier hovers like a glowing star, enhancing the natural light shining down from far above.

Cruising the Arafura Sea :- Cruising the Arafura Sea

Maybe it's the deep blue walls that give the Connoisseur Club such a gentile, old-fashioned feel. Or maybe it's the collection of impossible comfortable leather armchairs. Whatever it is, this is a relaxing spot for you and new friends to enjoy a fine cigar and sip cognac (both are available for purchase) in classic gentleman's club environs. Smoking is permitted in the club.

Darwin, Australia :- Darwin, Australia

Along the coast of the Northern Territory lies Darwin, a city isolated by the vast Australian desert. The area was sought by the French, Dutch and British, and was established as the town of Darwin in 1869. In 1942, the city was under the threat of a Japanese attack, so a major Australian military base was established. Today Darwin is the largest city of the Northern Territory, offering sights from its colonial past and excellent shopping and dining opportunities.
