Tour Itinerary

Sydney, Australia :- Sydney, Australia

Sydney’s harbour is the hub from which there’s much to see and do. Admire the skyline, swim at a harbour beach or cross the Sydney Harbour Bridge. The Rocks district is a shopper’s mecca offering a wide variety of goods, from woodcrafts and unique art to outback fashions.

Bay of Islands, New Zealand :- Bay of Islands, New Zealand

The Bay of Islands is a premier subtropical micro-region in New Zealand’s Northland, just a 3-hour drive north of Auckland. Known for its 144 islands, stunning beaches, and deep marine life. It offers a “winterless” climate popular for sailing, diving, and Dolphin spotting. Key towns include bustling Paihia, historic Russell, and scenic Kerikeri.

Auckland, New Zealand :- Auckland, New Zealand

Auckland, New Zealand’s largest city, is famously known as the “City of Sails” for its vibrant maritime culture and harborside lifestyle. Built on a volcanic field of over 50 dormant cones, the city offers a unique blend of urban energy and rugged natural beauty, where you can explore volcanic peaks like Mount Eden and black-sand surf beaches like Piha all in one day

Picton, New Zealand :- Picton, New Zealand

Picton is a picturesque port town at the head of Queen Charlotte Sound, serving as the primary connection between New Zealand’s North and South Islands via the Interislander and Bluebridge ferries. Beyond being a transport hub, it is a world-class destination for hiking, marine wildlife spotting, and exploring the stunning Marlborough Sounds

Christchurch (Lyttelton), New Zealand :- Christchurch (Lyttelton), New Zealand

Lyttelton is the historic, colorful port town for Christchurch, nestled in the crater of an ancient volcano on the Banks Peninsula. While it serves as the gateway for cruise ships, it has a quirky, “bohemian-chic” vibe all its own, filled with steep streets, indie cafes, and a legendary Saturday market.

Dunedin (Port Chalmers), New Zealand :- Dunedin (Port Chalmers), New Zealand

Port Chalmers is the charming, artistic gateway to Dunedin, known for its deep-water port, historic stone buildings, and vibrant creative community. While it serves as the main dock for large cruise ships, the town itself is a destination with eclectic galleries, vintage shops, and local eateries nestled just 15 minutes from Dunedin’s city centre

Fiordland National Park (Scenic Cruising) :- Fiordland National Park (Scenic Cruising)

Scenic cruising through Fiordland National Park is a centerpiece of New Zealand itineraries, offering a “front-row seat” to a UNESCO World Heritage wilderness where thousand-meter cliffs meet deep, ink-blue waters.
