Tour Itinerary

Barcelona, Spain :- Barcelona, Spain

The 1992 Summer Olympics revealed to the world what Europeans and seasoned travelers already knew – Barcelona is one of the world's greatest treasures. Vibrant and earthy, commercial and cultural, this city of two million residents is the capital of Spain's autonomous region of Catalonia. Stroll along the wide, tree-lined promenades of Las Ramblas and marvel at the spires of Gaudi's Basilica La Sagrada Familia. Or visit the former Olympic Ring on the hill of Montjuic – also home to world-class parks, fountains and museums. Barcelona, which nurtured such artistic giants as Picasso, Dali, Miro and Casals, is definitely a traveler's paradise.

Mallorca (Palma), Spain :- Mallorca (Palma), Spain

Palma, the vibrant capital of Mallorca in Spain's Balearic Islands, is a mix of Gothic architecture, Mediterranean beaches, and a labyrinthine Old Town. As Spain's 8th-largest city, it serves as the region's political, economic, and cultural heart.

Marseille (Provence), France :- Marseille (Provence), France

Marseille, the capital of the Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur region, is France's oldest and second-largest city. Founded over 2,600 years ago, this vibrant Mediterranean port blends grit with grandeur, offering a unique multicultural atmosphere that sets it apart from the more manicured towns of Provence

Corsica (Ajaccio), France :- Corsica (Ajaccio), France

Ajaccio is the sun-drenched capital of Corsica and the birthplace of Napoleon Bonaparte. Located on the island's rugged west coast, it offers a sophisticated mix of palm-lined boulevards, pastel-hued Genoese architecture, and immediate access to wild, mountainous nature.

Genoa (for Cinque Terre), Italy :- Genoa (for Cinque Terre), Italy

Genoa (Genova) is a historic port city that serves as a major gateway to the Cinque Terre, located about 80–100 km to the southeast. Often called "La Superba," Genoa offers a gritty yet grand alternative to the tiny villages, featuring one of Europe's largest medieval old towns and UNESCO-listed palaces

Santa Margherita, Italy :- Santa Margherita, Italy

Santa Margherita Ligure is a refined yet lived-in resort town on the Italian Riviera, often called the "Grande Dame" of the coastline. Located just 5 km from Portofino, it offers a more relaxed, authentic atmosphere with grand Belle Époque hotels, a bustling fishing port, and colorful pastel houses crawling up the hillsides

La Spezia (for Florence/ Pisa), Italy :- La Spezia (for Florence/ Pisa), Italy

La Spezia is a bustling port city in Liguria that serves as the strategic gateway to Tuscany and the Cinque Terre. While it is famously used as a hub for cruise passengers to reach Florence and Pisa, the city itself boasts a rich naval history and a charming waterfront

Barcelona, Spain :- Barcelona, Spain

Barcelona, the cosmopolitan capital of Catalonia, is a Mediterranean treasure where Gaudí's surrealist architecture meets ancient Roman history and sun-drenched beaches. The city is currently in a defining year as it holds the titles of World Capital of Architecture 2026 and European Capital of Christmas 2026
