Tour Itinerary

Helsinki, Finland (EMBARKATION) :- Helsinki, Finland (EMBARKATION)

Welcome to Scandinavia's "White City of the North," a city defined more by its people and Art Nouveau architecture than its chilly climate (from October to April). Helsinki is a classic sea-city, with a dramatic coastline coloured by bays and inlets.

Tallinn, Estonia :- Tallinn, Estonia

The capital of Estonia impresses cruise guests with its mix of medieval houses and very modern boutiques and café culture. Journey inside the ancient walls of Old Town to explore stunning Medieval landmarks like Toompea Castle and a 15th Century apothecary shop. Move up a couple centuries to experience Tsar Peter I's Kadriorg Palace, filled with art and surrounded by sculpted gardens and peaceful woodlands.

Stockholm (Nynashamn), Sweden :- Stockholm (Nynashamn), Sweden

When your cruise ship pulls into this small Swedish port, you'll be greeted by ferries transporting travellers to Gotland island. Nynashman hosts a harbour party each summer where boaters and travellers alike flock. The small and laidback town offers picture-taking opportunties from the surrounding scenic nature and of course, the Baltic Sea.

Klaipeda, Lithuania :- Klaipeda, Lithuania

Lithuania's third largest city, Klaipeda has been in and out of the hands of the Russians, Swedes and Germans. Marvel at the impressive, and verbosely christened, St. Mergel?s Marijos Taikos Karalien?s Church tower and walk through Anika Square. Head to the pristine Baltic waters lapping at the broad sands of Smiltyn? Beach. Or duck into the Clock Museum or Castle Museum

Gdynia, Poland :- Gdynia, Poland

Stroll the beautiful waterfront of Gdynia before heading to nearby Gdansk, the largest city in northern Poland. For a taste of local life, walk along bustling Long Market lined with delicious cafes and unique boutiques. Explore the sites of historic Old Town, which was restored after being destroyed in World War II. Tour St. Mary's Church – one of the world's largest brick cathedrals – or visit the Maritime Museum for a glimpse into the past of this ancient port city. Explore more of Gdynia on a European cruise!

Berlin (Warnemünde), Germany :- Berlin (Warnemünde), Germany

It's been more than two decades since the walls came down and Berlin became unified in many ways, including the pursuit of joy. Germany's capital city is a city that balances cosmopolitan chic with a liberal undercurrent of creativity and cool. Famous landmarks like the Brandenburg Gate and Reichstag fascinate. The elegant Bavarian Quarter amazes.

Hamburg (Kiel), Germany :- Hamburg (Kiel), Germany

Kiel, Germany, is a major port city located approximately 85-100 km (53-62 miles) north of Hamburg. The "Hamburg (Kiel)" designation often refers to Kiel as a cruise port for Hamburg, which is a common practice for cruise lines given Kiel's deep natural harbor on the Baltic Sea

Connection to Hamburg: Hamburg is an inland city on the Elbe River, whereas Kiel provides direct access to the Baltic Sea. The two cities are well-connected by road, rail, and bus, making travel between them efficient for tourism and commerce.

Copenhagen, Denmark :- Copenhagen, Denmark

The capital of Denmark, Copenhagen, is filled with canals, cobbled squares and copper spires. But don't let the historic appearance fool you. This is also Scandinavia's most cosmopolitan city. Certainly you can relive medieval times in The Latin Quarter, but you can also enjoy some of Europe's finest shopping, museums, cafes and nightlife prior to your cruise around the Baltics. Explore more of Copenhagen on a European cruise!
