Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Your Journey Begins in Prague

Arrive in Prague today and check in at your hotel for a two-night stay. After you've settled in, set out to explore the capital of the Czech Republic. Prague is known as the 'City of a Hundred Spires' due to its steeple-woven skyline, and from a vantage point along the river or looking down from the St. Vitus Cathedral, you'll be able to see why. Indulge in some fantastic Czech cuisine this evening and be sure to try a local beer – many say it is the finest in the world. (Overnight in Prague)

Day 2 :- Prague

Get ready to experience Prague through the eyes and appetite of a local. This immersive walking tour takes you beyond the usual tourist paths to sample some of the city's most authentic and beloved flavors. Savor hearty local hams and sausages, warm up with traditional Czech soups, and try the iconic Knedlíky dumplings, an essential part of Czech cuisine since the 19th century. And no visit would be complete without tasting the nation's pride: Czech beer. As the world's top beer consumers, Czechs take their brews seriously and so will you by the end of this tour. Along the way, enjoy a light-hearted introduction to Czech culture, humor, and maybe even a few cheeky local expressions. It's more than a food tour it's your chance to laugh, eat, and drink like a true Czech. (Overnight in Prague)

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Prague - Vienna

Enjoy breakfast in your hotel, and then follow the tracks south from Prague to Vienna on a high speed, direct train. Upon arrival, check in to your hotel for a two-night stay. Perhaps spend the afternoon indulging in some delicious Sachertorte, the famous Viennese chocolate cake, or head to the Gothic St. Stephen's Cathedral, one of the city's most famous landmarks famed for its intricate architecture. (Overnight in Vienna)

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Vienna

After breakfast this morning, spend the day exploring beautiful Vienna using your Vienna city card. Much of Viennese cultural life can be found in the Museumsquartier, home to an array of museums, cafes and restaurants within a former imperial stable building. Why not enjoy an operatic experience to remember at the Wiener Staatsoper (Vienna State Opera), or view the works of famous painters such as Rubens and Raphael at the Kunsthistorisches Museum (Museum of Fine Arts). Take in a performance at the Spanish Riding School – one of the oldest riding schools in the world and home to the famous Lipizzaner horses. Vienna also sits on the banks of the Danube, the perfect spot for a scenic boat cruise! And if you are interested in history, follow in the footsteps of the Habsburgs with a visit to the baroque Belvedere and Schonbrunn Palaces. (Overnight in Vienna)

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Vienna to Budapest

Enjoy a morning at leisure in Vienna, then continue your journey southeast on the high-speed route, crossing the border into Hungary, arriving at your final stop – Budapest. Upon arrival, check in at your hotel for a two-night stay and set out to explore the city. Be sure to immerse yourself in Budapest's beauty by admiring the grand architecture along the banks of the Danube River, best seen from the impressive Szechenyi Chain Bridge, which connects the two halves of the city Buda and Pest. (Overnight in Budapest)

Breakfast

Day 6 :- Budapest

Explore the "City of Spas" at your leisure. Why not spend a relaxing day at the Szechenyi Baths, 15 indoor and three outdoor pools are kept at a constant warm temperature to enjoy year-round. Take in the views from the Szechenyi Chain Bridge or perhaps learn about the harrowing history of the House of Terror, now a museum. Marvel at the magnificent frescoes at the Inner-city Franciscan Church or maybe view the Roman remains at the Aquincum Museum. Why not explore Budapest's fascinating underground caves or perhaps take the Funicular up to the top of Castle Hill for fantastic views of the River Danube and the city. After a busy day sightseeing, enjoy your Budapest Danube River cruise. Live entertainment is performed by four members of the Rajko Folk Orchestra and a buffet dinner and drinks are included. (Overnight in Budapest)

Breakfast

Day 7 :- Depart Budapest

After breakfast this morning, check out of your hotel and continue with your travels. If you wish to extend your journey, perhaps with an additional day in a different city, one of our Rail Holiday Specialists will be happy to assist you with the details.
